Accommodation recommendations:

Onsite camping

We have a designated camping space for traders, please see the map (last page).

The Showgrounds camping space includes access to hot showers and toilet blocks. Electricity is also available.

Spaces for onsite camping are now at capacity - please see other camping options below if you haven't already booked for camping onsite.

Other Accommodation

Showgrounds Camping Park.

This is another campground within the Showgrounds area. Campers in this area cannot readily access the Fantasy Medieval Fairgrounds area.

Please contact the Showgrounds direct to book a camp space <https://www.mgshow.com.au/campground>

The Camping Park has a black dump point.

Arkana Motor Inn & Apartments.

Rubbish.

We have 2 skip bins on site for all of your general rubbish and packaging. These can be found next to the amenities block adjacent to the Tavern.

Food & Dining

We have a number of different food traders at the event with vegans and vegetarians also catered for. These traders will be serving lunch and snacks on Saturday & Sunday.

Onsite breakfast options.

Joanne's Espresso Express will be returning for the early morning risers. She will be onsite from 7.30 am Saturday & Sunday serving hot & cold drinks.

Adjacent to Joanne's Espresso Express you will find Picnic in the Woods providing cooked breakfast options such as egg and bacon rolls from 7.30 am - 9.30 am Saturday & Sunday.

Medieval Feast

Saturday April 13th at the Showgrounds. Join us for a 3-course meal and entertainment - get your tickets here: <https://fantasymedievalfair.com/ticketing/>

Confession Coffee and Cafe. <https://www.confessionco.com/>

Located in Commercial Street Mount Gambier (driving distance to the Showgrounds). Confession is one of the event's major sponsors, so show them some love if you get a chance. These guys open EARLY so if you are awake from 5.30 am head down and see them for your coffee fix.

The South Eastern Hotel <https://www.southeasternhotel.com.au/>

Walking distance to the Showgrounds. If you have a large group we recommend you book in advance.

Allstars Pizza

The team at Allstars Pizza are a big supporter of the Fantasy Medieval Fair. They will deliver to your accommodation or The Showgrounds (after 4 pm Sat & Sun). Phone (08) 8725 5551

Eat Ezy Food Delivery. <https://www.eat-ezy.com.au>

These guys do the running around for you, they will pick up and deliver your order from a large number of restaurants and takeaway options in Mount Gambier. Check out their website for all the options.

Insurance & documentation.

Have you returned your Certificate of Currency?

The stallholder must hold and provide a copy of their Certificate of Currency (Public and Product Liability) for an amount not less than $10,000,000. (See item 4, terms and conditions of your application form). Please forward a copy to Tammy NO LATER THAN April 1st 2024 via email to traders@fantasymediavelfair.com

Any stallholders that have not returned a Certificate of Currency (Insurance) by this date are not guaranteed a trade space.

Pets & service animals

Please be reminded that service animals must be wearing the appropriate identifying harness or collar. Pets must be contained within your camping area during the event (10am-4pm Saturday and Sunday). Please be respectful of other traders and patrons and pick up after your animal.

Raffle Item

If you are generously donating an item or voucher for the raffle we would love to share the details on our social media pages. Please send through details and/or photos for an extra social media shoutout.

Raffle proceeds are being split between Royal Flying Doctors and Limestone Coast Festivals & Events (Fantasy Medieval Fair) to assist with event costs.
